

True Northerner.

PAW PAW, MICHIGAN, DEC. 20, 1871.

Local Department.

EXHIBITION.—By request of many who attended, and many who were unable to attend the Grammar School Exhibitions of the 21st, 22nd, the best selections of both evenings will be repeated on Friday evening, Jan. 5th 1872. The teachers and students of these Departments have expended a great deal of time and labor in preparing for this entertainment, and are working hard to pay for their new piano this year. The very unfavorable weather prevented anything like an ordinary attendance on the previous evenings, and it is hoped that all who failed to attend then will be present, and hear what many declare to be the best exhibition yet given by our school. Come one and all.

There is a misunderstanding among the masses of the people in regard to the payment of Box Rent and Postage. The present law specially declares that Box Rent and Postage shall be paid at least one quarter (three months) in advance, and if not so paid, Postmasters are compelled to withhold their mail.

BURNED TO DEATH.—On Dec. 23d, at Marquette, a young lady named Molae, was burned in a shocking manner by the igniting and explosion of a can of non-explosive kerosene oil, while she was in the act of pouring some of the oil in the stove to make the fire burn. She lived about thirty hours in much agony after the occurrence.

On Saturday, the 29th of Dec., at 12 o'clock, noon, standing on the corner of Main and Kalamazoo streets, we counted eighty-nine teams in those two streets, which cross each other at right angles. About one quarter of the number were on the move, the others standing at the hitching posts along the margin of the two streets. It was not an extra good day for teams either.

COLLEGE EXPRESS is the name of a rather neat little quarto monthly, which has just made its debut from the Olivet Collegiate Institute. It is under the management of Mr. E. A. Landphere of this village, who is at present attending that institution. Its typography is very creditable.

A DESIRABLE PLACE TO EMIGRATE TO.—We read it reported that Washington Territory has outstanding liabilities to the amount of Sixteen Million dollars; mostly created during the past year, and principally for railroad purposes. According to the Michigan Almanac, this territory has a population of twenty-three thousand, and nine hundred and fifty-five. If the territory keeps up its present rate of incurring indebtedness, by the time it becomes a state it will be entirely owned by the railroad companies, and its productive industries used up for one or two hundred years. Its future prospect is truly a hopeful one, especially to those seeking new homes in the great West.

OUR PROF. HARKNESS delivered an address before the State Teachers' Association, in convention at St. Andrew's Hall, in the City of Detroit, on Friday last, subject, "The Model Teacher." If the Prof. put those present on the right track to become as adipose and sleek and good looking as he himself is, he did a good thing. The programme announces a recess immediately after this address. In the afternoon the Convention was to visit the City Hall, the Museum, and other places of interest. The Prof. is at home now and can tell us all about it. The Convention was a good thing, well calculated to promote the interest in our Common Schools and render them more efficient.

A SLEIGHT BLUNDER.—An editor clipped from an exchange an obituary poem, which he sent to the composing-room with some introductory remarks. He said: "We publish below a very touching poem from the pen of Miss M.—." It was written by her at the death of her sainted mother, and it overflows with those expressions of filial affection which are the natural outgrowth of a pure, untutored genius that has developed beneath the sheltering influence of a mother's love. The reader will observe how each line glows with ardent affection and tenderest regret. Somehow, in attaching this introduction to the poem, the editor turned up the wrong side of the clipping, and the consequences was that the editor's lines led the reader gently into an article upon "Hog Cholera in Tennessee."

CHICAGO GOES FOR THE CORRUPT aldermen with a good deal of vigor. It appears that one David M. Ford had contracted with the city to furnish iron water pipe for a price fixed by the board of aldermen. Subsequently Ford wished the price to be increased, and for that purpose his agent, a Mr. Wahl, paid John W. McCullagh, of the Chicago Republican, the nice little sum of Twenty-five hundred dollars, to be used in furtherance of Mr. Ford's little scheme of having his compensation increased. Mr. Republican McCullagh in turn paid nineteen hundred dollars of the same money to Alderman Joseph A. Montgomery for his influence in the council, returning six hundred dollars as compensation for the influence of the Republican, in putting up this little speculation on the tax paying citizens of Chicago. The above facts were sworn to by Messrs. Ford and Wahl. James A. Wahl, another member of the common council, received of one William Goggin a bribe of four thousand dollars, for his influence in inducing the Board of Aldermen to purchase certain real estate for school purposes.

Both Montgomery and Wahl have been indicted by the Grand Jury and are to be brought to trial, and we hope convicted and thereafter do a little honest work for the state.

We gather the above facts from the Indictments which have been filed in the Courts against them, and which are published in the daily papers.

NEW YEAR'S CALLS.—A party of six young gentlemen of our village spent the afternoon of New Year's day in making friendly calls. They were drawn by a four horse team, with driver and footman, and each of the party wearing a scarlet badge on which was printed the word "INCOGNITA." They called upon a good many of their friends and partook of the hospitalities offered; they were as happy as larks and as merry and playful as kittens, and enjoyed the day hugely in having a grand good time.

In times past New Year's calls have been associated with a free use of alcoholic beverages, but it gives us much pleasure to be able to put on record the fact that our "young bucks" refrained entirely from partaking of anything stronger or more stimulating than tea or coffee although more than one opportunity was afforded them to do so, except in the single instance of tasting a little of Mr. C. F. Allen's Native Wine, which is a pure article unadulterated with alcoholic mixtures.

The example set by this party of young men is worthy of imitation and goes far toward correcting an evil which heretofore has been far too common. Indeed this was a genuine temperance lecture acted out rather than rehearsed.

Notice the advertisement of J. M. Servoss in another column. A very desirable property for sale.

IN BAD TASTE.—The South Haven Sentinel makes some very unbecoming remarks relative to the Secretary of the Paw Paw Valley Agricultural Society sending the list of premiums, awarded by this Society, to the TRUE NORTHERNER for publication, and talks about the west district and that kind of boosh, as though an Agricultural Society was a political party or something of that kind. The editor says he offered to publish it, etc.

Now the list of awards was received at the TRUE NORTHERNER office on Monday morning, through the Post Office, and on the following Thursday a copy of this paper was mailed to the South Haven Sentinel containing the list of awards, thus furnishing that paper with a good copy to work from.

The TRUE NORTHERNER has a much larger circulation among the people who attended the Exhibition referred to, than the Sentinel has, which fact is well known to the officers of that organization, hence the reason for using its columns. They expected the Sentinel would give it an insertion.

If we understand the Sentinel, it claims its circulation to be within twelve miles of South Haven. Now, owing to the prevalence of trees in the woods, the Sentinel's locality was barely represented at the exhibition; while Lawrence, Arlington, Hartford, Hamilton, Keeler, Decatur, Paw Paw and Antwerp had pretty full delegations in attendance, and as the articles placed on exhibition were principally from these towns and the premiums awarded were generally to the exhibitors from these towns it was regarded as of some importance that the list of awards should be published in a paper that circulated pretty thoroughly in the locality indicated, which the TRUE NORTHERNER does—being read in far more towns mentioned by more than three thousand persons.

This attempt at bullying and badgering a worthy officer of an Agricultural Society is an exceeding bad taste and exhibits a disposition that is not very placid.

Rev. Wm. Lusk, Rector of Trinity Church, Niles, preached at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in this village, on Wednesday evening last. The sermon was a very fine one.

THE MASQUERADE.

The Grand Event of the Season.

The Masquerade Party at the Dyckman House, on Friday evening last, was (to the participants) a very grand affair, everything passing off finely. The maskers numbered about 150 and were dressed in every conceivable style and costume. Some very elegant velvet and silk dresses were worn by a number of the gentlemen and the ladies were by no means behind; while scattered through the party were seen character and comic costumes without number. Not being much on the Junking order we shall not try to describe the different dresses minutely, and if we were so inclined space and time would not permit. At one time in the evening we saw in a set formal for a collision Sir John Falstaff, with all his rotundity, playing the gallant not to Anna Page, but to a beautiful "Flower Girl;" "Hamlet" doing honors to an oriental charmer; the "Fat School-Boy" dressed in Nankeen, performing the agreeable to the duxton little "Savoyard Peasant;" while "Ragged Pat" and his sprig of Shellalah were looking out for the wants of the "Queen of Cards." So much for Set No. One, the second set was similar, but more so, and thusly "down the Hall." The "Indian Chief" stalking down the room with stately mien, would now and then utter his peculiar "whoop" and then "every body pronounced," "Grimm!" was well represented and we doubt not that had any of the "Kavol's" been present they would have learned something new in the way of "Poro Clowns." The "Scotch Highlander" from New Jersey was at home as well as those "Jolly Tars," "Spanish Nobleman," "French Counts," "Italian Brigands," "Indian Princesses," "Pocahontas Girls," etc.

We think no apology is necessary for our being unable to distinguish many of the characters as our pen did not give out and we were compelled to draw in our "sketchy lines."

At one o'clock Miss Longwell announced supper and when the company reached the refreshment rooms they found the tables groaning under their loads of choice viands. Supper being over dancing was resumed and held sway until daylight began to tinge the Eastern horizon. We cannot refrain mentioning the excellent music furnished by Forsyth's Full Quadrille Band. The costumes were nearly all furnished by Mr. Galtland of Detroit, and can say that it has never been our lot to see a finer assortment than was presented by him from which selections could be made.

We hope, as another winter spreads her mantle of white over the earth, that it may be repeated and that we may "By there to see."

CRICK SOCIETIES.—At a regular meeting of Paw Paw Lodge No. 181, O. O. F., the following persons were elected as the officers of the Lodge for the ensuing term:

Wm. Reed, N. G.	O. W. Rowland, V. G.
John Tuley, Secy.	G. Lich, Treas.
M. Brown and J. M. Servoss, representatives to the Grand Lodge.

The officers elect for Paw Paw Encampment No. 30 are J. M. Servoss, C. P.; I. D. Connor, H. P.; C. E. Byrn, S. W.; B. P. Stearns, J. W.; and G. Lich, Treasurer.

W. R. Servoss and J. M. Brown were elected as representatives to the Grand Lodge.

A CORRECTION.—The Michigan Teacher says, "Mr. W. F. Kent has taken the South Haven Union (School) vice Louis H. Roberts resigned." Mr. Kent has taken the Lawton Union in place of Roberts resigned. Mr. D. F. GILDEX is the principal of the South Haven School. He succeeds Mr. Kent.

The Decatur Republican of Dec. 29th, says, "The Hartford Day-Spring is informed that in all probability the REPUBLICAN'S 'Devil' reversed Mrs. Abbott's figures, which Sullivan out of his nine turkeys."

What about Sullivan and what of this nine turkeys. It would all be very clear were it not for the obscurity that seems to pervade the statement.

Major Duncan, of the Niles Republican, says he has in his office a geranium 18 feet high. [Doverian Republican.]

To which the Niles Democrat responds: "It is true. The geranium stands by a window about 18 feet from the ground."

THE VALLEY HOUSE BURNED.—This Wednesday forenoon, at about eleven o'clock, the Valley House, about two miles south of this place, was discovered to be on fire in the upper story, and the flames so far advanced that the building could not be saved. The house was built by B. B. Herriek in 1870. There was to have been a dancing party at the house on Wednesday evening, and the entertainment was adjourned to the Town Hall in this place. The building was insured for $700, on a mortgage interest of the Mattessons' of this place. Loss about $1,000.—Decatur Republican.

Tuesday morning a singular accident occurred to the Grand Rapids sleeping car "Albion," which came from Chicago on Night Express. As the station engine here hitched on to her to move her on to the Grand Rapids & Indiana track, one of the employees noticed it did not move just right, and upon examination, it was found that the centre wheel of the forward truck, with other parts of the truck, was entirely gone, and yet it had not been missed. It is a great wonder it did not throw the car from the track, and thereby cause an accident.—Kalamazoo Herald.

PAW PAW, - - MICH.

I adopt this mode of advertising my business instead of employing agents. My object is, to reduce the expense of the business as much as possible, so by purchasing of me you pay no agent's fees. You can also save the expense of delivering the work if you choose; besides you can select the Marble yourself, and see the style of it, as it will be, so there is no possibility of being deceived or being disappointed.

By taking this course, there is a saving of from twenty to thirty per cent.—according to how far the purchaser comes.

You can readily see that the money I save by not keeping agents goes to the purchaser instead of the agent.

Agents claim that they can furnish work cheaper. That cannot be done, unless done by Apprentices. I furnish no work of that class as I employ no Apprentices.

My work and material cannot be questioned. Patronize home, if you can, and save money by so doing.
